Philosophy

All members of the Camp Nazareth Staff are responsible for carrying out the Mission of Camp Nazareth: to glorify and give thanks to God in everything we do. This is done within a Program that gives each camper the opportunity to know their God and live their faith in a safe and peaceful environment. Our Staff must be committed to helping the campers develop and deepen their relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ through participation in all aspects of the Camp Program. This is done in part by helping each camper to better understand and live their Orthodox Faith and live peacefully with their fellow campers. The Staff must acknowledge that it is their own behavior that has the greatest impact on the campers' behavior. Each Staff Member must be a good example of what it means to be an Orthodox Christian for the campers and their fellow staff members.

CAMP NAZARETH

DIOCESAN SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY

Camp Nazareth Policies and Procedures Regarding Sexual Misconduct

Camp Nazareth has as its Mission to “Glorify God in all things” and to create an environment which is founded on faith in Christ, intricately woven into a lifestyle of Christian love and acceptance. At Camp Nazareth, we are concerned with what campers take home with them. We are also concerned with how they grow physically, emotionally and spiritually. We are concerned with their growth in human relations and how they interact with one another.

As a spiritual retreat and learning center for youths and adults within the American Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Diocese, here at Camp Nazareth we adhere to Orthodox Christian virtues. Among these virtues are the affirmation and acknowledgement that each person is a child of God and a Temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 6:19) created in the image and likeness of God (Gen. 1:26). It is to affirm that each person is our neighbor (Luke 10:25 et seq.) and that we are to treat each and every person as we wish to be treated (Matt. 7:12), i.e., with kindness, respect, patience and agape love.

Christ instructed us to love one another as He loved us (John 15:12-13), giving His life for our sakes. Accordingly, any behavior that exhibits Christian virtue is expected. Conduct which is contrary to Christ’s teachings is a sin and unacceptable.

It is essential that all priests, team leaders, workers, counselors, volunteers and others involved with our work here at Camp Nazareth understand the overwhelming public concern regarding abuse and sexual conduct issues. Violations can quickly lead to the involvement of law enforcement officials and can quickly destroy the reputation and work of the Camp.

This written policy statement is designed for clarification of the issues among all staff members, volunteer or paid, counselors, clergy or laity. Admittedly it is conservative. The impressions that campers (who come from a variety of backgrounds) take home with them and pass along to their parents or friends, or parents gain when visiting Camp Nazareth, help determine whether campers will return or recommend the camp to others. These same impressions or perceptions affect the reputation of the Camp. A reputation of having an outstanding camping program can take years to gain and a single inappropriate experience to lose. Anyone involved with Camp Nazareth, including campers and staff must not be uncomfortable with their own impressions and reactions to the sexual behavior of others.

We cannot be too careful in the area of sexual abuse. Even the appearance of inappropriate conduct or the filing of a false allegation can cause irreparable damage to the reputation of the accused staff member and Camp Nazareth forever. Therefore, all staff members must be very cautious in order to avoid doing anything that could be interpreted as sexual abuse or sexually inappropriate conduct.

As a result these procedures are read broadly and expansively to protect the interest of the children, campers, counselors, and other staff, both volunteer and paid, clergy and laity. Conduct proscribed here is not all-inclusive. Staff must avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

There are, consequently, certain behaviors that must be mentioned that are prohibited for all Camp Nazareth employees and volunteers during their stay at Camp Nazareth. These include engaging in any physical touching of any kind including but not limited to kissing, petting, caressing, or any other contact or conduct intended for sexual gratification with any other person related in any way to the camp, including but not limited to campers, counselors, employees or volunteers.

Sexual misconduct also includes verbal misconduct. Vulgar, obscene, suggestive or profane talk or behavior is strictly forbidden. Such conduct includes narrative accounts of sexual activities, sexual innuendoes, comments about one’s body or that of another person, discussions of sexual activities or experiences, or obscene jokes.

There are additional behaviors, while not necessarily intended for sexual gratification that are inappropriate due to the appearance of possible impropriety. These include interactions between staff members and other staff members (counselors, maintenance, kitchen staff, etc.) and/or campers such as: massages, hand holding, sitting on laps or full body hugs.

Some general guidelines for counselor behaviors with campers, and other counselors include:

Never touch anyone against the person’s will (verbally or non-verbally expressed) unless it is to prevent an accident.

Appropriate touching, that takes into account the touched one's comfort level, may include pats on the back, touch on the shoulder, hugs of welcome, hello, goodbye, thanks, congratulations (however not full body or excessively long hugs), hand shakes, high fives, arms around shoulders. Appropriate touching can become inappropriate such as excessive tickling, wrestling with or teasing a camper.

Inappropriate touching is any physical contact that violates the touched person's comfort level. It is touch that is given or forced on another person for the primary satisfaction of the actor not the one touched. Touching of the genitals, buttocks or any touching for sexual gratification is always inappropriate and cannot be consensual.

It is inappropriate to share information about your personal sexuality or sex life or to inquire about another person's.

It is inappropriate to show favoritism or to encourage crushes or romantic fantasies that campers may have about you.

Respect the privacy of campers during the times when they are changing clothes or showering.

It is inappropriate to share a bed or sleeping bag with a camper.

It is inappropriate to show signs of affection to other staff in front of the campers. Behavior of the staff should be circumspect around campers so that at no time do they associate any two staff members as a couple. Any and all behavior in a camp setting must allow for perceptions and concerns of others.

All staff must be concerned for the safety and protection of the campers and others at Camp Nazareth. As a result, it is required of all staff that they report any violations or other improprieties even if it involves another staff member. Failure to report an incident or complaint that is made known to a staff member can result in discharge.

If a child confides in a staff member about another camper or staff member, the staff member shall discuss the disclosure personally with the Camp Director, or if that is not possible with the Camp Nurse or Head Counselor only. The staff member should refrain from investigating the complaint independently or from discussing it with other staff.

Any violations of the above guidelines and procedures must be reported at once to the Camp Director and to the Diocesan Chancery. If for any reason one feels unable to report the violation to the Director, the violation may be reported directly to the Diocesan Chancery. All violations will be investigated for both the protection of the child and for the protection of the one alleged to have committed the violation.

The Camp Director, in consultation with the Ruling Hierarch and/or Diocesan Chancery, will contact the appropriate authorities in accordance with relevant state and local law and the parents.

In the event the reported incident involves child or sexual abuse by a staff member, paid or volunteer, the Camp Director will, without exception suspend the person from the camp. The parents or legal guardian of the child(ren) involved will be promptly notified in accordance with the directions of the relevant state or local agency.

In the event the reported incident involves an alleged violation of the guidelines less than that of abuse, the Camp Director will consult with the Diocesan Chancery to determine whether the person should be suspended pending the complete investigation.

Whether the incident or alleged offense takes place on or off camp property, it will be considered camp related.

Reinstatement of the staff person will occur only after all allegations have cleared to the satisfaction of the Diocesan Chancery and the Ruling Hierarch. All camp staff and volunteers must be sensitive to the need for confidentiality in the handling of this information and should only discuss the incident with the Camp Director and/or the Diocesan Chancery.

All full-time and part-time staff, counselors and volunteers, lay and clergy must read and sign this policy.

By signing below, I verify that I have read and fully understand Camp Nazareth's Sexual Misconduct Policy, which is outlined in the Camp Nazareth Staff Manual.
